

490 As the Disciples, When Thy Son Had Left Them

1. As the dis - ci - ples, when Thy Son had left them, Met in a
 2. As, when their con - verse closed and sup - per end - ed, Tak - ing the
 3. And as they prayed and sang to Thee re - joic - ing, Ere in the love - feast, joy - ful - ly con - vers - ing, All the stored mem - 'ry bread and wine they made thanks - giv - ing, Break - ing and bless - ing, night - fall they em - braced and part - ed, In their hearts sing - ing of the Lord's last sup - per Fond - ly re - hears - ing;

 thus to have com - mun - ion With Christ the liv - ing;
 as they jour - neyed home - ward, Brave and true - heart - ed;

So may we here, who gath - er now in friend - ship, Seek for the
 So may we here, a com - pa - ny of broth - ers, Make this our So may we here, like grain that once was scat - tered O - ver the spir - it of those ear - lier church - es, Wel - com - ing love - feast and com - mem - o - ra - tion, That in His hill - side, now one bread u - nit - ed, Led by the

Him who stands and for an en - trance Pa - tient - ly search - es.
 Spir - it we may have more wor - thy Par - tic - i - pa - tion.
 Spir - it, do Thy work re - joic - ing, Lamps filled and light - ed.

COELITES PLAUDANT

11 11, 11 5.

DIVA SERVATRIX

11 11, 11 5.

Music 1: Rouen Antiphoner, 1728

Music 2: Bayeux Antiphoner, 1739

Text: Percy A. Dearmer, 1931