

I Said to God, "I Trust in You"

From Psalm 16

1. I said to God, "I trust in You, So do not let me per-ish.
 2. Their sor-rows shall be mul-ti-ply'd Who af-ter i-dols fol-low.
 3. LORD, You are my in-her-i-tance; You are my cup and birth-right.
 4. I bless the LORD who coun-seled me, And trained my med-i-ta-tion.
 5. You save from death which I de-serve, Your mer-cies know no mea-sure.

2 You are my Lord, the good I do A-part from You is rub-bish."
 With their own God dis-sat-is-fied, In i-dol filth they wal-low.
Such grace is sheer ex-tra-va-gance: You're grant-ed to me out-right!
 8 My chos-en guide; the One I see; God is my sure foun-da-tion.
 Your Ho-ly One You will pre-serve, To give us wis-dom's trea-sure.

3 As for the saints who dwell on earth, "To me they all
 Their blood-filled cups I will not give To si-lent gods
 6 The lines that You have drawn are sound; You've gift-ed me
 9 For this my heart is full of joy, My tongue* in glad-
 11 The path of life You will un-fold; At Your right hand

* Acts 2:26

ex-cel in worth They are the friends I cher-ish."
 that do not live; Nor call on names so hol-low.
 with pleas-ant ground; Main-tained by lov-ing fore-sight.
 ness I em-ploy; I rest in ex-pec-ta-tion.
 is joy un-told, And ev-er-last-ing plea-sure.