

How Long, O LORD, Wilt Thou Forget?

From Psalm 13

1. How long, O LORD, wilt Thou forget? Far from Thy face I wait and fret.
 2. Look, LORD my God, and answer me; Grant that my eyes Thy light may see,
 3. Thy steadfast love has been my stay; My heart shall praise Thee night and day

2 How long yet must I bear my sorrow? My heart longs for Lest, when the light of life shall fail me, 4 When foes with joy
 And shall rejoice in Thy salvation, 6 And I will praise

Thy mercy's sorrow. Why am I still with foes be-set?
 and pride as-sail me, My fall de-light my en-e-my.
 with ju-bi-la-tion Thy boun-ty, LORD Most High, for aye!
