

Oh, Let Not My Foes Exulting

From Psalm 35:19–28

10. 19 Oh, let not my foes ex - ult - ing In de - fi - ance of Thy laws,
 11. 21 With dis - tend - ed mouths cen - so - rious, Ev - 'ry rank of - fend - er cries,
 12. 23 Rise, O Lord my God, at - tend - ing To the drift of this dis - pute,
 13. 25 "All that we sur - mise has followed," Let them not with triumph boast,
 14. 27 Let them say, who love the measure, That in char - i - ty I deal;

And with nods and winks in - sult - ing, Bear me down with - out a cause.
 "Tie up - on thy crimes no - to - rious; We have seen them with our eyes."
 And my right - eous cause de - fend - ing, All mine en - e - mies re - fute.
 "His re - mains the gulf has swallowed, He has giv - en up the ghost."
 "Bless - ed be the LORD, whose pleas - ure Is His ser - vant's bliss to seal."

20 For the scope of their com - mun - ing Is not in - so - lence to curb;
 22 All their im - pu - dent be - hav - ior, Thou, O GOD, from Heav'n hast viewed;
 24 Vin - di - cate me, LORD, and spare me, As Thy mer - cy is for all;
 26 Make them blush with shame in - gen - uous, Who at my dis - tress re - joice;
 28 As for me, in Heav'n - ly phras - es I will har - mo - nize my tongue,

But their tongue with treach - ry tun - ing, They the pub - lic peace dis - turb.
 Be not si - lent, O my Sav - ior, Nor my just com - plaint ex - clude.
 Let not clam - or o - ver - bear me, Nor ex - ult up - on my fall.
 Who a - gainst the truth are stren - uous; Give them grace to hear her voice.
 Day by day Je - ho - vah's prais - es Shall in sweet - er notes be sung.
