

1. The Spir-it falls as wa - ter falls Up-on a hum-bled head. The wa - ter
2. In Je-sus we have come to life, The old man cru-ci-fied, The God puts a - ter seals, the gos-pel calls; In Christ we all are dead, In Christ we all are dead.

5

 a - way all en-vious strife, All loft - y, car-nal pride, All loft - y, car-nal pride.

 the gos - pel calls; In Christ we all are dead, In Christ we all are dead.
 all en-vious strife, All loft - y, car-nal pride, All loft - y, car-nal pride.

 seals, the gos-pel calls; In Christ we all are dead, In Christ we all are dead.
 way all en-vious strife, All loft - y, car-nal pride, All loft - y, car-nal pride.

 seals, the gos-pel calls; In Christ we all are dead, In Christ we all are dead.
 way all en-vious strife, All loft - y, car-nal pride, All loft - y, car-nal pride.

3. The Father calls the nations home;
He sent His preachers out
To summon those who loved to roam
Through twisted sins and doubts.

4. But water by itself is dead,
As we were without Christ.
So those who come without the Head
Will pay an awful price.

5. The Spirit washes sin away,
The Spirit gives us faith.
We come into the Father's day,
The first day and the eighth.